go to the informer, and the other half to the state, the suit to be brought in the name of the state; if any grain shall be brought by water to Baltimore for sale in bags, the said inspector shall weigh the said grain on board the vessel or steamboat, without removing it from the bags, if the buyer and seller shall mutually agree.

In force from March 8, 1864.

1862, c. 283 repeals sections 387, 388 and 389 and substitutes the following:

387. Each inspector shall make a daily return to 1862, c 283, s. 1 the inspector-general, of the number of bushels of make returns to inspector-grain inspected and weighed by him, and the in-general. spector-general shall make, or cause to be made, an entry of the same in a well bound book, showing the number of bushels weighed and measured for each person, and the said inspector-general shall charge charges for and receive one fourth cent per bushel for weighing inspection and inspecting, and shall charge one-fourth cent per bushel for measuring, said one-fourth cent per bushel for measuring shall be paid by the seller to the measurer, and the first named aforesaid one-fourth cent per bushel for weighing and inspecting shall be paid by the purchaser to the inspector-general.

388. The inspector-general shall make return on Ibid s 2. the first day of every month, or within ten days eral to make thereafter, to the comptroller, verified by affidavit comptroller. before some justice of the peace, of the number of bushels of grain weighed and inspected, and the amount of money received therefor, and shall pay the amount thereof, after deducting necessary office rent and the payment of the wages of not more than two clerks, of a salary of not more than six hundred dollars per annum for each to the treasurer upon the warrant of the comptroller.

389. The treasurer upon the warrant of the complished a 3 troller, shall allow and pay over to the inspector-fees general and the other inspectors, one-fourth cent per bushel upon all grain inspected and weighed by